

Entrust Associates Business Broker Anne Pagano Elected to the Board of Directors of the Carolina – Virginia Business Brokers Association (CVBBA)

10-26-2009

RALEIGH, N.C. -- Entrust Associates business brokerage firm, based in Raleigh NC, announces that Senior Broker Anne S. Pagano has been elected to the Board of Directors of the Carolinas - Virginia Business Brokers Association (CVBBA). Effective January 1, 2010, as a Board member, Anne will sit on the Finance, Audit and By-Laws Committee.

"I was surprised and delighted to have been considered and elected to the Board of the CVBBA. I look forward to using my background as a certified public accountant, a business owner and a certified business intermediary to contribute to the objectives and purposes of the association," says Anne.

Adds CVBBA President Alan E. Clarke, CBI, "Our association can only benefit from Anne's professional experience to help grow our membership of business brokers and related professionals. We expect her to provide leadership and input as we expand our member benefits, raise market awareness and continue to provide educational and networking opportunities."

About the Carolina – Virginia Business Brokers Association

The CVBBA is a non-profit corporation that enhances the public's awareness of the business brokering profession. It promotes the professional development of its members through education and networking opportunities while also encouraging a code of ethics among its members.
