

Entrust Associates Welcomes Donald Emmett as Senior Business Broker

Raleigh NC—January 14, 2011—Entrust Associates announced today that Donald Emmett has joined the firm as a Senior Business Broker. Don comes to Entrust from the Raleigh office of a New York-based business brokerage that he created and manned. In addition to his more than 30 years of experience in small business and entrepreneurial activities, Don brings several years of specific business brokerage experience along with his knowledge of sales and marketing to guide sellers and buyers to a fair and successful business transactions. As a licensed real estate broker in North Carolina, Don is active in the industry.

Don joins four other brokers at Entrust. The firm represents clients in the Raleigh, Durham, Chapel Hill metro area as well as in the Triad and at the Coast. Entrust business brokers offer business sellers the highest level of professional support, advice, and expertise, in exploring one of the most important decisions of their business lives, the selling of their businesses.

“I’m excited to become part of the Entrust team of business brokers. I look forward to working with Entrust to continue to assist clients in all aspects of valuing and selling their businesses. Based on my experience, the brokers at Entrust are unmatched locally in terms of experience and professionalism. Combining that expertise with the highest level of integrity provides exactly the environment I was seeking,” says Don.

Adds Entrust president, Bruce Deerson, “Entrust is excited to have Don join us. Don shares our focus on client needs and brings valuable experience to us. He is a smart businessman and expert negotiator. Don is a go-getter who works hard for his clients to enable them to reach success.”
