

Kitchen & Bath Galleries® Franchise Expansion

Raleigh, NC, November 03, 2007—Entrust Associates announced today that client Kitchen & Bath Galleries (KBG) continued its franchise expansion by selling the Youngsville, NC territory to Tom Eldridge.

KBG is North Carolina's premier source for complete kitchen and bath remodeling. The company provides to its clients a unique combination of professional design, building, installation and remodeling services all within one convenient setting, which includes such product choices as custom cabinetry, appliances, tile, countertops and flooring.

As a result of its strong growth and continuing market demand, KBG has embarked on a franchising program to expand throughout the Southeast.

With a strong background in the home improvement industry, Eldridge is looking forward to bringing his talents to bear in helping Youngsville area homeowners and builders create the perfect look for their kitchen and baths.

Stephen Vaughn, President of KBG commented, "We are excited that Tom has joined our showroom family. We know that he will continue to carry on the KBG tradition of offering clients creative design services, the area's most comprehensive product line, and impeccable customer service."

Entrust Associates, a Raleigh-based professional business brokerage firm, is assisting KGB in its franchising efforts. According to Bruce Deerson, President of Entrust, "The Kitchen & Bath Galleries concept has proven to be very successful. We're pleased to assist KGB in bringing this franchising concept to prospective business owners wishing to benefit from the knowledge and expertise that KGB brings to the marketplace."
